Showroom Junior – Casual

Role Profile

Are you passionate about crafts and sewing? Looking for a job that fits around your school schedule? Look no further!

We are seeking a motivated and committed Junior Showroom Assistant with a desire to explore a career in sewing, embroidery and crafting. This casual position is perfect for students currently in school or those who have recently graduated and are eager to step into the world of retail and crafts.

Our family business is known for its inclusive, fun culture and passion. You'll be learning the latest sewing technology from a team of experts who are dedicated to sharing their knowledge and fostering a creative community. Join us, and become part of a tradition that values innovation, education, and the joy of creating something beautiful with your own hands.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist customers with inquiries and demonstrate product features.
- Maintain a tidy and inviting showroom environment.
- Process sales transactions and handle cash responsibly.
- Help with stock management and inventory tasks.

What We Offer

- A flexible role starting with 4 hours on Saturdays, with potential for additional hours based on your availability.
- A friendly and supportive team environment.
- Opportunities for career growth within the craft and sewing industry.
- Staff discounts on our amazing range of products.

About You

- You have a genuine interest in crafts, sewing, or similar hobbies.
- You possess excellent communication skills and a friendly demeanor.
- You're reliable, punctual, and ready to learn.
- Previous retail experience is a plus, but not necessary.

Apply
